It is the policy of the State Bar of California to comply with all laws. An important aspect of this policy is our commitment to obey the letter and the spirit of the antitrust laws. Pursuant to the Supreme Court of California's Administrative Order 2017-09-20, any member of the public may report a potential antitrust violation to the State Bar. When notifying the State Bar of your concerns, please include the following information:

- The nature of the potentially anticompetitive action;
- The department(s) or committee(s) of the State Bar undertaking the action;
- The specific type(s) of market impacts you believe may arise from that action; and
- Why you believe the State Bar does not enjoy immunity from antitrust laws for the action in question.
