The State Bar of California has submitted a report to the Legislature in accordance with Business and Professions Code section 6177. Pursuant to section 6177, the State Bar shall report, each year by December 31, to the Legislature on the number of complaints filed against California attorneys alleging a violation of Article 10.5 of the State Bar Act, pertaining to the provision of financial services by lawyers.

The following summary of the report is provided per the requirements of Government Code section 9795.

This annual report addresses “the number of such complaints, the type of charges made in each complaint, the number of resulting investigations initiated, and the number and nature of any [ensuing] disciplinary actions take[n] by the State Bar…”

In 2012, the State Bar did not receive any complaints alleging violation of Business and Professions Code section 6175 et seq.

The full report is available for download on the State Bar’s web site at http://www.calbar.ca.gov/AboutUs/Reports.aspx.

A printed copy of the report can be ordered by calling 916.442.8018.
December 28, 2012

Title of Report: Annual Report to the Legislature by The State Bar of California.
Provision of Financial Services by Lawyers

Statutory citation: Business and Professions Code Section 6175, et seq.

Date of report: December 28, 2012

This report is mandated by Business and Professions code section 6177. Pursuant to section 6177, the State Bar must annually inform the Legislature about all complaints alleging that attorneys have violated Article 10.5 of the State Bar Act, pertaining to the sale of financial product services by lawyers. The State Bar did not receive any such complaints in 2012.

In 1999, the Legislature enacted Article 10.5 of the State Bar Act regulating the sale of financial products, including long-term care insurance and life insurance, by lawyers to clients who are elders or dependent adults (Bus. & Prof. Code, §§6175-6176; added by Stats. 1999, Ch. 454, effective January 1, 2000 [Sen. Bill No. 72]). These sales must be fair and reasonable to the clients, and lawyers must make specific written disclosures (Bus. & Prof. Code, §6175.3).

In 2000, the Legislature enacted a statute requiring the State Bar to report to the Legislature each year on complaints alleging violations of the financial products statutes by California attorneys (Bus. & Prof. Code, §6177; added by Stats. 2000, Ch. 442; effective January 1, 2001 [AB 2107]). The report must address the number of such complaints, “the type of charges made in each complaint, the number of resulting investigations initiated, and the number and nature of any [ensuing] disciplinary actions take[n] by the State Bar . . . .” a

In order to fulfill its statutory reporting responsibilities, the State Bar created an allegation code with which to track complaints claiming that attorneys violated requirements for the sale of financial products to clients.

---

a Business and Professions Code section 6177 reads, in its entirety:

The State Bar by December 31 of each year shall report to the Legislature on the number of complaints filed against California attorneys alleging a violation of this article. The report shall also include the type of charges made in each complaint, the number of resulting investigations initiated, and the number and nature of any disciplinary actions taken by the State Bar for violations of this article.
In 2012, the State Bar did not receive any complaints alleging a violation of the financial products statutes.

For further information, please contact:

Jayne Kim
Chief Trial Counsel
State Bar of California
1149 South Hill Street, Los Angeles, CA 90015-2299
180 Howard Street, San Francisco, CA 94105-1639
Telephone: (213) 765-1468  (415) 538-2063
Fax: (213) 765-1029  (415) 538-2214
E-mail: jayne.kim@calbar.ca.gov