Dear Colleague:

The California Commission on Access to Justice is seeking nominations of California judges for the Benjamin Aranda III Access to Justice Award.

The Aranda Award honors one California trial judge, appellate court justice, or commissioner who deserves recognition for personally having done significant work towards improving access to our courts for low and moderate income Californians, and has demonstrated a long-term commitment to this effort. The award is named in honor of the late Judge Aranda who was known for his tireless efforts to promote fairness and access in the courts.

The California Commission on Access to Justice will select the award recipient in consultation with the Judicial Council, the State Bar of California and the California Judges Association. The Commission's membership includes appointees from each of those three entities, as well as from the business, labor, education and religious communities, and it is dedicated to pursuing long-term strategies designed to make significant progress toward the goal of improving access to justice for all Californians, regardless of financial resources or language ability. The award will be presented by the Chief Justice at the Distinguished Service Awards in the latter part of 2016.

Thank you for your interest, and for considering a deserving judge for this prestigious award.

Very truly yours,

Hon. Ronald Taylor, Ret., Chair
