

The State Bar of California

2002 JACK BERMAN AWARD of ACHIEVEMENT for DISTINGUISHED SERVICE to the PROFESSION and the PUBLIC

AWARD GUIDELINES

The Annual California Young Lawyers Association (CYLA) Individual Award of Achievement for Distinguished Service to the Profession and the Public was established in 1992 to recognize the substantial achievements of a young lawyer. In 1993, the CYLA Board of Directors renamed the award in memory of Jack Berman, a young lawyer who demonstrated outstanding service to the profession and the public, and dedication to issues of concern to the profession, especially its young lawyers.

The accomplishments of the individual may be provided through a program(s), project(s) and/or special event(s) whether or not coordinated by a local barrister association.

1. Eligibility

Any active member of the State Bar of California who is either in his/her first five years of practice or age 36 and under, can be nominated.

2. Awards Granted/Award Application Type

One award shall be granted. Award applications should be submitted on behalf of any single service to the public, to the judiciary, or to the profession. A project/service submitted for the individual award consideration in prior years may not be submitted.

3. Filing Procedures/Deadline

Person or organization making the nomination must complete the nomination form for the 2002 Jack Berman Award of Achievement for Distinguished Service to the Profession and the Public. Exhibits and/or supporting materials also may be submitted. The deadline for receipt of nomination forms and supporting materials is Friday, June 7, 2002 Faxes will not be accepted.

4. Judging/Award Criteria

The State Bar's Board of Governors will select an award recipient and make its decision based on the criteria set forth or comparable achievements and strength of the supporting letters. The project/service need not be pro bono but must involve service to the public sector, service to the judiciary or service to the profession.

5. Announcement of Recipient/Award Presentation

Immediately after the Board of Governor's decision, the recipient shall be notified in writing. The award presentation will be held during the State Bar Annual Meeting in Monterey, which will be held October 10-13, 2002.
