Section 1 Board Of Trustees Member Responsibilities

Introduction

The Board of Trustee's governance model, consistent with the governing practices of other governmental and non-profit boards, indicates that one of the most important functions of the Board is to make sure that prospective members clearly understand and are ready, able, and willing to carry out the governing mission of the State Bar of California. To assist potential candidates considering running for the Board or the various appointing authorities considering public member applicants, the following list is designed to outline the basic skills and competencies necessary to succeed as a Board Member. Obviously, this list is general in nature and not exhaustive.

Board Member Skills and Responsibilities

- (a) Be familiar with the mission and purpose of the State Bar of California. A statement of the mission, as well as information on the organization's goals, constituencies, finances, and operation will be available to all prospective members.
- (b) Once elected or appointed, members of the Board of Trustees should attend and participate in all Board meetings, committee meetings, and other special events such as the Annual Meeting. Members should be made aware of the time commitment necessary to fulfill these obligations.
- (c) In order to fulfill each member's fiduciary duty, members will participate fully in the annual budgeting process and attend all budget meetings as scheduled. The State Bar is large and its finances complex, requiring extra diligence of board members. Orientation and training will be provided so that Members understand the complex budget documents.
- (d) Members should allocate adequate time to prepare for meetings in advance in order to make sound decisions on behalf of the State Bar, its stakeholders, including the public. This requires review of substantial, written material.
- (e) The board has the primary responsibility of leading the organization through governance, with the staff delegated the authority and responsibility of management. Members have the responsibility of understanding the distinctions between these two functions, and how they can as Board members work most effectively in partnership with the staff.
- (f) The Board's primary relationship with the professional staff is through the Executive Director; members will actively participate in the Executive Director's performance evaluation and ensure that the Executive Director has the support necessary to implement the policy goals established by the Board of Trustees.

- (g) In order to effectively govern, members will be familiar with the existing governance structure of the Board of Trustees so that each member can establish a good working relationship with other members of the Board and staff.
- (h) Members should be knowledgeable about conflict of interest standards and ensure that such conflicts are noted when appropriate in formal filings and at board meetings. It is important for members to place the interests of the organization as a whole before personal, geographic, or special interest group concerns.
- (i) As members of the Board of Trustees, we are the primary ambassadors for the State Bar. Each member should be prepared to represent the organization to its members and other bar constituents, including members of the public.
- (j) Members are encouraged to share their diverse skills and expertise when determining policy.

Minimum Standards of Commitment and Conduct:

- (a) Meeting Attendance: Absent emergency circumstances, members will attend all Board and committee meetings on time.
- (b) Meeting Protocol: Members will be courteous to one another, guests and staff, avoiding personally directed comments. Board members will avoid interrupting other speakers and yield to the chair or President regarding the order to comment.

- (d) Confidentiality: Members recognize that matters discussed in closed session are to be kept confidential subject only to open meeting reporting requirements.
