TRIAL ADVOCACY WORKSHOP GUIDELINES

GUIDELINES FOR TRIAL ADVOCACY PROGRAMS THAT MAY SATISFY ONE OR TWO CONTESTED HEARINGS OF THREE HOURS OR MORE IN LENGTH

Standards for Certification and Recertification in Family Law
(adopted 12/95)

Under section 2.2.2 of the Standards for certifying and recertifying family law specialists, applicants may use alternative tasks and experience in partial satisfaction of the requirement to serve “principal counsel in five(5) hearings or trials.” One of those alternatives (section 2.2.2.3) is “successful completion of a recognized trial advocacy program.”

A qualifying course may be substituted for two trials if it contains not only instruction, but also practice and critique for the participants in accordance with the guidelines below. A qualifying course may be substituted for one trial if the course contains only instruction, as outlined in the guidelines below. You may request credit for one of these two options (one-credit or two-credit), but not both.

The applicant/attorney must officially register and satisfactorily complete the class. Either program must be conducted by an individual or group qualified by practical or academic experience. No credit will be given for the portions of a general civil litigation trial advocacy course devoted to jury selection or voir dire.

Applicants should demonstrate in their application how the course selected meets these guidelines when requesting trial credits.

Specific guidelines follow on the next page.

I. Guidelines for trial advocacy classes that may be substituted for two trials:

A. A skills workshop (e.g., students prepare and present portions of a mock trial and are critiqued) that has the following will qualify as a substitute for two trials under b. in the application for certification as a family law specialist:

1. At 15 hours of instruction time, which shall include demonstrations with a critique following, plus at least an additional six (6) hours of actual role-playing participation by the student serving as principal counsel for a party in a mock trial;
2. At least one faculty member/teacher of the program for every four students in the participatory portion of the program;
3. A live presentation with no more than 25% of taped instruction; and
4. Inclusion of the program must cover the following topics:
 - a. Trial preparation and use of trial notebooks, whether paper or electronic;
 - b. Use and content of a trial brief;
 - c. Motions in limine;
 - d. Use of opening statements;
 - e. Examination and cross-examination of witnesses, including experts;
 - f. Marking exhibits and introducing documentary evidence;
 - g. Foundational requirements for admissibility of evidence;
 - h. Evidence Rules and objections;
 - i. Closing argument; and
 - j. Anticipating appeal.

II. Guidelines for trial advocacy classes that may be substituted for one trial:

A. A non-participatory skills workshop (e.g., students attend a series of lectures and demonstrations that are critiqued) may be substituted for one of the trials required in b. on the application for certification as a family law specialist if the course includes:

1. At least 15 hours of instruction time, which shall include demonstrations by the instructor(s) with a critique following;
2. A live presentation which has no more than 25% of taped instruction; and
3. Coverage of the topics referred to in section A.4 above.

Applicant Name: _____ Bar Number: _____

On this attachment, list the educational activities you have attended or taught that were specifically pre-approved for legal specialist credit. Providers of approved legal specialist activities are subject to the same requirements as MCLE providers, so you should have been provided with a certificate of attendance indicating that the activity was approved for legal specialist credit and stating the number of hours of credit you received.

COPY THIS ATTACHMENT IF ADDITIONAL LINES ARE NEEDED IN THE TABLE BELOW.

DOCUMENTATION REQUIRED FOR EACH ACTIVITY: Certificate of attendance. The provider is required to give you a certificate of attendance. If you did not receive a certificate, contact the provider directly.

Rather, list them on Attachment B-3.

COPY THIS ATTACHMENT IF ADDITIONAL LINES ARE NEEDED IN THE TABLE BELOW.

DOCUMENTATION REQUIRED FOR EACH ACTIVITY: Certificate of attendance, plus sufficient information for the CBLS to determine whether credit should be granted if the title and program sponsor do not make this clear (for example, promotional materials, a brief description of the program, course outline, list of instructors).

Remember that no more than one-half (1/2) of your requirement can be satisfied in this manner, except for course under options 4 and 5.

Note that webinars and tapes can sometimes be participatory activities that should be reported on B-1 or B-2 if they involve some sort of independent verification of attendance, such as a test during or after the class; in this case, the provider will provide a certificate of attendance.

If you are submitting activities that require CBLS approval, please provide sufficient information to allow evaluation of the self-study. Reading of treatises on your own is generally not approved.

The CBLS may require additional information regarding alternative education activities.
