

ADMISSION TO PRACTICE LAW IN CALIFORNIA

Congratulations! You have satisfied the requirements for admission to practice law in California, and the Committee of Bar Examiners of The State Bar of California (Committee) will obtain an order from the Supreme Court of California permitting you to take the attorney's oath of office on or after May 29, 2001 before a Judge, Justice or Clerk of a Court of Record, Commanding Officer if in the military service, the American Consul if in a foreign country or a notary public. In California, a Court of Record includes Municipal and Superior Courts, the Courts of Appeal and the Supreme Court. Also, in California, the following officials are authorized to administer the attorney's oath: court commissioners, notary publics, shorthand court reporters, any member of the legislature, any county officer and members of the State Bar Board of Governors. Specific information regarding registration and fees and a membership enrollment card are enclosed. The Committee has made arrangements for admission ceremonies to be held in several cities. You may attend one of the admission ceremonies that will be held before the California Courts of Appeal at the times and places indicated below. You are not required to attend an admission ceremony to take the attorney's oath. You may take the oath before any of the officers noted above.

Your bar examination results are valid for five years from the last day of the examination you passed. Once you have been informed that you have fulfilled all the requirements for admission to practice law and that your name was placed on a motion to the Supreme Court, it is not necessary to file any additional applications or reapplications, including moral character, during the period between the date of the examination you passed and the expiration of five years from that date, before taking the attorney's oath. However, until you have taken the attorney's oath and been admitted to the State Bar of California, you have a continuing duty to notify the Committee of Bar Examiners in the event there is a change or addition to the information previously furnished on the moral character determination application.

ADMISSION TO THE UNITED STATES
DISTRICT COURT

Northern District

Immediately following the ceremony for admission to practice in the California courts, the United States District Court for the Northern District of California will convene for the purpose of admitting interested applicants to the bar of that Court. If you wish to be admitted to that Court at that time, you must take the District Court oath during the ceremony and pick up your validation card and instructions at the conclusion of the ceremony. Your District Court certificate will be mailed to you within several weeks following the ceremony.
