

The State Bar of California

2005 Spring Summit: Pathways to Justice

June 2 - 4, 2005
Sir Francis Drake Hotel,
San Francisco

Sponsored by the State Bar of California,
Office of Legal Services, Access & Fairness
Programs, Program Development Unit and the Legal Aid Association of California

Conference Highlights:

- Earn up to 13.5 hours of MCLE credit *
- More than 40 training sessions covering a multitude of topics for staff, board members and volunteers from legal services providers, pro bono programs, lawyer referral services, self-help legal centers, court-based pro per programs, and other partners in the delivery of legal assistance to low- and moderate-income Californians.
- Fund development sessions with Bob Zimmerman of Zimmerman Lehman.
- Opportunity to comment on the ABA Standards for Providers of Civil Legal Services to the Poor.

Keynote Speakers:

Honorable Marilyn Hall Patel,
*Judge, United States District Court,
Northern District of California*

Professor David Hall,
Northeastern University School of Law and Board Member, Legal Services Corporation

Reception featuring LAAC Annual Awards of Merit

Thanks to a grant from the Foundation of the State Bar of California, a limited number of partial scholarships are available. Call 415-538-2267 for more information.

For more information, contact Rodney Low at 415.538.2219 or rodney.low@calbar.ca.gov or Sharon Ngim at 415.538.2267 or sharon.ngim@calbar.ca.gov

*The State Bar Office of Legal Services, Access & Fairness Programs is a State Bar of California approved MCLE provider.