As Required by Civil Code § 1798.17

Collection and Use of Personal Information. The Bureau of Criminal Information and Analysis's Applicant Program in the Department of Justice collects the information requested on this form as authorized by Penal Code section 11105.7. The Applicant Program uses this information to provide a criminal offender record information background check to applicant agencies if the applicant is unable to provide any fingerprint images at all. In addition, any personal information collected by state agencies is subject to the limitations in the Information Practices Act and state policy. The Department of Justice's general privacy policy is available at <http://oag.ca.gov/privacy-policy>.

Providing Personal Information. Providing the following items of personal information is voluntary: Aliases (AKA), Armed Forces Number (MNU), and Miscellaneous (MNU).

Access to Your Information. You may review the records maintained by the Applicant Program in the Department of Justice that contain your personal information, as permitted by the Information Practices Act. See below for contact information.

Possible Disclosure of Personal Information. In order to conduct criminal offender record information background checks to help determine the suitability of a person applying for a license, employment, or a volunteer position working with children, we may need to share the information you give us with applicant agencies and law enforcement agencies.

The information you provide may also be disclosed in the following circumstances:

- In response to a Public Records Act request, as allowed by the Information Practices Act;
- To another government agency as required by state or federal law;
- In response to a court or administrative order, a subpoena, or a search warrant.

Contact Information. For questions about this notice or access to your records, you may contact the Applicant Program by e-mail at Appagencyquestions@doj.ca.gov or via mail at:
