The Office of Admissions recently migrated to a new Salesforce platform. Our Admissions Information Management System (AIMS) has been up and running since the evening of February 28. As such, on occasion we have experienced a few kinks in the system and request your patience.

Here are some Frequently Asked Questions \(FAQs\) that may help address any system questions that you might have.

In the meantime, if you have had duplicate payments deducted from your account, please notify the Office of Admissions about the multiple payments by emailing the administrative email box at admissions@calbar.ca.gov and we will initiate the refund process.

If you are having other issues, please alert us through the same email box.

Thank you for your patience.
