

Extra Testing Time and Other Testing Accommodations Election Form

July 2021 California Bar Examination applicants who have been granted extra testing time as a testing accommodation, have the same percentage of extra testing time for each session of the exam, feel that they will be able to stay in view of the web camera for the duration of each question session, and have not been granted any other testing accommodation(s) that are incompatible with the remote testing conditions may test remotely and do not need to fill out this form.

July 2021 California Bar Examination applicants who have been granted extra testing time as a testing accommodation and have a different percentage of extra testing time for different sessions of the exam and/or feel that they may not be able to stay in view of the web camera for the duration of each question session, or who have been granted any other testing accommodation(s) that are not compatible with the remote testing conditions, may choose to make one of the elections below [please check only one of the boxes]:

- Because I have a different percentage of extra testing time for different sessions of the exam and/or I feel I may not be able to stay in view of the web camera for the duration of each question session, I, _____, elect to reduce my extra testing time from _____ to _____. (The reduction must result in the same percentage of extra testing time for each session of the exam.) By so electing, I, _____, agree to stay in view of the web camera for the duration of each question session, or until I submit my answer file, as required by the Acknowledgment and Acceptance of Testing Conditions for the July 2021 California Bar Exam.
- Because I feel I may not be able to stay in view of the web camera for the duration of each question session, I, _____, elect to take the July 2021 California Bar Exam in-person at the test center location assigned by the State Bar, where I will be able to fully utilize all of my granted accommodations.
- I have been granted testing accommodation(s) for the July 2021 California Bar Exam, which have been determined by the State Bar to not be compatible with the testing conditions required to test remotely and/or cannot be effectively provided and securely administered in a remote environment, and I, _____, elect to waive the following accommodation(s) in order to take the July 2021 California Bar Exam remotely:
_____.
