

GUIDELINES FOR
TITLE 4. ADMISSIONS AND EDUCATIONAL STANDARDS DIVISION 2. ACCREDITED
LAW SCHOOL RULES
Effective January 1, 2022

G-4.160(A)(1)

As long as a law school maintains its primary administrative office and all law school campus locations in California, a school may host or store its software or electronic records outside of California, or offer some student services via personnel located outside of California, so long as the records and services are available at the law school's administrative offices and otherwise reasonably available to students and alumni.

G-4.160(A)(6)(b)

A law school that uses social media or other platforms for communication may provide a prominent hyperlink, in a font size consistent with the majority of the page, to a webpage or other document that contains the full required disclosure when space constraints make it impractical to post the full disclosure regarding accreditation on the communication platform.

G-4.160(D)(5)

The topics to be covered in the plan should include but need not be limited to: (1) Academic Program Description; (2) Current Curriculum; (3) Proposed Curriculum Changes; (4) Annual Educational Goals and Long Range Program Goals; (5) Human Resources, Equipment, Supplies, Software and Other Resources Needed to Implement Annual Program Goals; and (6) Learning Outcomes Assessment Methods and Calendar.
