

---

TESTING ACCOMMODATIONS PETITION SUBMISSION CHECKLIST

- ☐ Submit your online testing accommodations application in the applicant portal (or mail a completed Form A: Petition for Testing Accommodations to the San Francisco office noted below)
- ☐ Complete a personal narrative as described in the application

Upload one or more of the following disability verification forms with supporting documentation, corresponding to the disability or disabilities indicated in the application (Form A):

- ☐ Form B: Physical Disabilities Verification (if required); with
  - ☐ Supporting medical documentation as described in form B
- ☐ Form C: Learning Disability Verification (if required); with
  - ☐ Comprehensive evaluation report as described in form C
- ☐ Form D: ADHD Verification (if required); with
  - ☐ Comprehensive evaluation report as described in form D
- ☐ Form E: Psychological Disabilities Verification (if required); with
  - ☐ Comprehensive evaluation report as described in form E
- ☐ Form H: Visual Disability Verification (if required); with
  - ☐ Individualized assessment and test results as described in form H
- ☐ Upload Form F: Law School Verification (if testing accommodations were received in law school, for each applicable law school)
- ☐ Upload Form G: Other Jurisdiction's Testing Accommodation Verification (if testing accommodations were received for a bar exam in another jurisdiction of the United States)
- ☐ Upload all other applicable supporting documentation regarding previous accommodations, school transcripts, or any other relevant information

Please note that the above is the minimum required documentation. The Committee of Bar Examiners or the State Bar may request that you provide additional information.

As stated in the Certification and Authorization in the online application (or on Page 9 of Form A), and in the Admissions Rules, it is the applicant's responsibility to file a complete petition that includes all necessary forms by the applicable deadline. Incomplete petitions will not be processed.