Chapter 2. Standards

Rule 7.20 Confidentiality required

(B) To ensure the integrity and confidentiality of the commission’s activities and records, the Board of Trustees and its members are not permitted to receive copies of commission records or inspect its records except as authorized by law or these rules.

(C) This rule applies to the Board of Trustees, commissioners, and employees and agents of the State Bar but not to candidates.

Rule 7.21 Confidentiality exclusions

None of the following constitutes a breach of confidentiality under these rules:

(A) confidential inquiries made in the course of investigations;

(B) information commissioners share or discuss to discharge their responsibilities under these rules, such as information about interviews with raters, Confidential Comment Forms, comments of individual commissioners, and votes;

(J) any discussion regarding law, rules, or procedures applicable to the commission.

Rule 7.22 Breach of confidentiality

Rule 7.23 Disclosure of conflicts of interest

In order to avoid conflicts of interest that may interfere or appear to interfere with the commission’s ability to impartially assess the qualifications of a candidate for judicial office, a commissioner or board member attending a commission meeting or inspecting commission records must immediately disclose to the chair the nature of any significant present or past familial, professional, business, social, political, or other relationship with a candidate, whether direct or indirect.

Rule 7.23 adopted effective July 17, 2009.

Rule 7.24 Disqualification from participation

(A) If a commissioner or the chair determines that a relationship would unduly influence or appear to influence the commissioner’s consideration of a candidate’s qualifications, the commissioner must not investigate or evaluate the candidate and must refrain from attempting to influence the evaluation of any other commissioner. Factors to be considered in making the determination include the date of the relationship, its duration, and whether it is more than casual or incidental. If the commissioner determines that the relationship does not require disqualification and the chair disagrees, the determination of the chair prevails.

(B) A disqualified commissioner may complete a Confidential Comment Form on a candidate but may not be present when the commission considers or votes on the candidate or be identified as a rater at a commission meeting.

(C) A board member whose relationship with a candidate may interfere or appear to interfere with the commission’s ability to impartially assess the qualifications of the candidate may not be present when the commission meets to consider the candidate, may not review commission records regarding the candidate, and must refrain from attempting to influence the evaluation of any commissioner regarding the candidate.

Rule 7.25 Qualities evaluated

In evaluating the qualifications of judicial candidates, the commission must consider the extent to which candidates possess the following qualities, the absence of any one of which is not intended to be disqualifying: impartiality, freedom from bias, industry, integrity, honesty, legal experience broadly, professional skills, intellectual capacity, judgment, community respect, commitment to equal justice, judicial temperament, communication skills, and job-related health. In addition

(A) Superior court candidates are expected to have the qualities of decisiveness, oral communication skills, and patience;

(B) Court of Appeal candidates are expected to have the qualities of collegiality, writing ability, and scholarship; and

(C) Supreme Court candidates are expected to have the qualities of collegiality, writing ability, scholarship, distinction in the profession, and breadth and depth of experience.

(2) well qualified to candidates possessing qualities and attributes indicative of a superior fitness to perform the judicial function with a high degree of skill and effectiveness;

(3) qualified to candidates possessing qualities and attributes sufficient to perform the judicial function adequately and satisfactorily; or not qualified to candidates possessing less than the minimum qualities and attributes required by these rules.

(B) The commission must assign one of the following ratings to candidates for the Court of Appeal or the Supreme Court:

(4) not qualified to candidates possessing less than the minimum qualities and attributes required by these rules.

Rule 7.41 adopted effective July 17, 2009; amended effective January 18, 2024.

Rule 7.42 Request for withdrawal

(2) a complaint, investigation, or other disciplinary matter against a candidate is pending before the State Bar or Commission on Judicial Performance when the commission votes on the candidate.

(B) If the Governor declines to withdraw a candidate pursuant to subsection (A) the commission may consider the open complaint, investigation or other disciplinary matter against the candidate pending before the State Bar or Commission on Judicial Performance in assigning a rating pursuant to Rule 7.26.

Rule 7.42 adopted effective January 18, 2024

Article 2. Confidential Comment Forms

Upon receiving the name of a candidate, the team must ask the candidate to provide the names of and contact information for:

(A) All attorneys and judicial officers mentioned in the candidate’s Application for Appointment; and

(B) Fifty to seventy-five people to whom Confidential Comment Forms may be sent because they are reasonably likely to have knowledge of the candidate’s qualifications.
Rule 7.45 adopted effective July 17, 2009; amended effective January 18, 2024.

Rule 7.46 Commission’s contact list

(A) Upon receiving the name of a candidate, the team must prepare a list of people to whom Confidential Comment Forms may be sent because they are reasonably likely to have knowledge of the candidate’s qualifications. To the extent feasible, the list must reflect a broad cross-section of attorneys who practice the same types of law as the candidate and where the candidate practices.

(B) Whenever possible the team will not place continuing and exclusive reliance on the same sources of information in evaluating candidates from a given area.

Rule 7.46 adopted effective July 17, 2009.

Rule 7.47 Required distribution

(A) The objective of the team must be to obtain a return of at least seventy-five Confidential Comment Forms that provide information that is sufficient and credible for a fair evaluation.

(B) Absent special circumstances, the team must send Confidential Comment Forms to

   (1) all those listed in a candidate’s Application for Appointment and all others whose names are submitted by the candidate;

   (2) fifteen hundred individuals selected at random from the commission’s contact list;

   (3) all judicial officers in each county where a candidate practices and all judicial officers where a candidate seeks appointment; and

(C) Commission staff must send electronic Confidential Comment Forms to all justices of the California Supreme Court, all justices of any appellate district where a candidate practices or seeks appointment, all judges of the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit, and all judges of the federal district courts where the candidate practices or in districts that overlap with jurisdiction of the court where the candidate seeks appointment.

Rule 7.47 adopted effective July 17, 2009; amended effective January 18, 2024.

Article 3. Candidate interviews

Rule 7.50 Prior disclosure of substantial and credible adverse allegations

At least four business days before interviewing a candidate, or unless such notice is waived by the candidate, the team must disclose to the candidate as specifically as possible without breaching the confidentiality required by these rules any substantial and credible adverse allegations related to temperament, bias, commitment to equal justice, industry, integrity, ability, experience, health, physical or mental condition, or moral turpitude that would be determinative of unsuitability for judicial office unless rebutted. The team may disclose only allegations it has corroborated.

Rule 7.50 adopted effective July 17, 2009; amended effective January 18, 2024.

Rule 7.51 Purpose and timing of candidate interviews

(A) When the lead commissioner determines that a reasonable time has elapsed for return of Confidential Comment Forms and a sufficient number of forms has been returned to enable the team to evaluate the candidate’s qualifications, the entire team must interview the candidate to

(1) discuss as specifically as possible all factors positive and negative, relevant to qualifications regarding which the team requires further information, without breaching the confidentiality required by these rules; and

(2) afford the candidate the opportunity to respond to the adverse information provided to the candidate10 and present additional information regarding qualifications that support his or her candidacy.

(B) Before voting on the candidate, the commission must afford the candidate a reasonable opportunity to provide the commission with additional information in response to adverse allegations raised in the interview.

Rule 7.51 adopted effective July 17, 2009.

10 Rule 7.50.
remote means, unless the chair authorizes an in-person interview in unusual circumstances. A candidate may not be interviewed by or appear before the entire commission in connection with their nomination.

(B) In conducting the interview, the team must do nothing to enable the candidate to ascertain the source of information it has received under the assurance of confidentiality.

(C) Unless the candidate objects, the interview must be recorded and the recording retained in accordance with these rules. A candidate who objects to recording is not entitled to review of a rating of not qualified.

Rule 7.52 adopted effective July 17, 2009; amended effective January 18, 2024.

Article 4. Evaluations

Rule 7.55 Separate evaluation of candidate for superior court and appellate court

When the Governor names a candidate for a superior court and an appellate court, the commission must conduct separate evaluations for each judicial office.

Rule 7.56 Summary evaluation of candidate previously evaluated for superior court or Court of Appeal

(A) The commission may conduct a summary evaluation based on a completed evaluation and rating of qualified or higher within the past twelve months of the Governor’s request that the candidate be re-evaluated. The summary evaluation shall apply to:

(1) a superior court candidate whom the Governor later proposes for the superior court of a different county; or

(2) a Court of Appeal candidate whom the Governor later proposes for a different district Court of Appeal.

(B) In determining whether to conduct a summary evaluation, the commission must consider the same factors the chair would consider when the Governor requests a new evaluation of a candidate.11

(C) In the event that the summary evaluation does not reveal additional negative matters, then the commission shall adopt the prior evaluation submitted to the Governor.

Rule 7.56 adopted effective July 17, 2009; amended effective January 18, 2024.

Rule 7.57 Evaluation of Supreme Court candidate named for Court of Appeal

If the commission has rated a candidate for the Supreme Court as qualified or higher, and the 11 See Rule 7.57.

Governor within a reasonable time proposes the candidate for the Court of Appeal, the rating applies for the Court of Appeal vacancy.

Rule 7.57 adopted effective July 17, 2009.

Article 5. Reports

Rule 7.60 Reports to commission

(A) At the conclusion of an investigation and evaluation, the investigating team must provide the commission with a report detailing the results of its investigation in advance of the JNE Meeting. The report must specify the number of Confidential Comment Forms mailed and the number received; categorize the responses; summarize substantial and credible information submitted; recommend a rating; and otherwise comply with commission instructions.

(B) The commission shall meet in person to consider all candidates. Absent unusual circumstances, the lead commissioner must present the results of its investigation in person at the JNE Meeting. The chair shall consult with State Bar staff regarding the location and schedule of meetings.

Rule 7.60 adopted effective July 17, 2009; amended effective January 18, 2024.

Rule 7.61 Reports to Governor

(A)

(1) A commission report to the Governor regarding the qualifications of a candidate must include the names of the team members; the number of Confidential Comment Forms mailed and the number returned; and the number of commission votes for each rating, except as provided in subdivision (B)(2)(a).

(2) When a report includes the number of commission votes, it must also provide the number of any commissioners who were present for the discussion of a candidate but then abstained from voting for any reason.

(3) A candidate is reported as not qualified only if a majority of commissioners voting rate the candidate not qualified. An abstention does not count as a vote.

(4) If half the commissioners voting rates a candidate not qualified and half rates the candidate qualified or better, the candidate is reported as qualified. For a candidate who is rated by a majority of commissioners voting as qualified or better, in the event of a tie vote among qualified, well qualified or exceptionally well qualified ratings, the candidate will be reported as having received the highest of the ratings that received the tie vote.
(B)

(1) The commission must find a candidate not qualified only on the basis of substantial and credible information.

(2) The report for a candidate found to be not qualified, must also
   (a) state that “at least 75 percent of the commissioners voting find the candidate not qualified” and not provide the number of votes; or
   (b) state that “a majority that is less than 75 percent of the commissioners voting finds the candidate not qualified” and provide the number of votes.

(C) If unusual circumstances prevent a team from creating mailing lists, distributing Confidential Comment Forms, obtaining responses, or otherwise meeting the requirements of these rules, the team must identify those circumstances in its report to the Governor.

(D) In general, the commission makes reports to the Governor in the order in which the Governor has submitted the names of candidates. The commission may consider a candidate out of order if the chair determines that there are reasons to do so.

Rule 7.61 adopted effective July 17, 2009; amended effective November 18, 2021; amended effective January 18, 2024.

Article 6. Reconsideration

Rule 7.65 Reconsideration of not qualified rating

Only a candidate rated not qualified is entitled to request reconsideration of the rating. Within ten days of sending the Governor a rating of not qualified, the commission must notify the candidate in writing of the not qualified rating and the right to request reconsideration. The candidate must make a request in accordance with these rules within thirty days of receiving the written notice. The review committee will complete review of a candidate’s request for reconsideration not later than 90 days after the State Bar receives the request. The State Bar will not make the not qualified rating public while the review is pending.12

Rule 7.66 Review committee

(A) To review candidates’ requests for reconsideration of a commission rating, the Board of Trustees must appoint a five-member review committee consisting of two members of the Board of Trustees, one of whom shall be a public member and one an attorney licensee, one past member of the commission, and two at large members to be appointed at the discretion of the Board of Trustees. Neither of these at large members will be current members of the Board of Trustees.

12 Government Code § 12011.5, subd. (g).
(B) The review committee has absolute discretion to rescind the opinion of the commission if it has good cause to believe that

1. violation of these rules has materially affected the commission’s rating;
2. conflict of interest or bias has affected the rating;
3. an inadequate or biased mailing list was used;
4. new evidence, which the candidate had no reasonable opportunity to present, could have changed the rating; or
5. after review of the candidate’s record, the commission’s rating of not qualified is not supported by substantial evidence.

(C) If a member of the review committee recuses himself or herself in a particular matter, the Executive Director of the State Bar must assign the matter to a temporary member who has previously served on the review committee.

Rule 7.67 Candidate’s request for new evaluation

If the review committee rescinds a not qualified rating of the commission and the candidate requests a new investigation, the chair must appoint new investigators to conduct the new investigation. The candidate’s request must be submitted in writing and be received within thirty days of issuance of notice of the rescission.

Rule 7.68 Governor’s request for new evaluation

(A) If the Governor requests a new evaluation of a candidate whom the commission has rated not qualified, the chair must determine whether or not a new investigation is required.

(B) To determine whether or not a new investigation is required, the chair must consider

1. the extent to which the original investigation failed to include facts or information that should have been investigated;
2. the extent to which acts or events occurring after the investigation could change the rating;
3. the extent to which additional information or the candidate’s further rebuttal of adverse information would assist the commission in assessing a material issue;

(4) whether the original investigation is still timely, “timely” normally meaning concluded within the last twelve months;

(5) the candidate’s current disciplinary record; and

(6) other factors that may be relevant.

(C) If the chair determines that a new investigation is not required, at its next meeting following receipt of the Governor’s request the commission must vote to affirm its rating or assign a new one.

(D) If the chair determines that a new investigation is required, the chair must assign it to the original team or a new one. Upon receipt of the team’s report, the chair must provide it to the commission at its next meeting to vote on the candidate’s qualifications.
