

Article 7
VOLUNTEER INVOLVEMENT COMMITTEE

The Volunteer Involvement Committee is responsible for the maintenance of a positive, productive working relationship between the State Bar and its attorney members and sub-entities, in this capacity:

- Fashioning detailed strategies for building and maintaining a positive, productive relationship between the State Bar and its members, including maintaining effective two-way communication – carrying out this planning responsibility within the State Bar planning process and in coordination with the Planning, Program Development, and Budget Committee. Assessing the health of the State Bar relationship with its member attorneys, including conducting member focus groups and administering member opinion surveys, and revising strategies as appropriate.
- Recommending nondisciplinary appointments to the State Bar's standing committees, section executive committees, special committees, boards and commissions, and external entities (formerly the responsibility of the Appointments Committee of the Board of Governors).
- Fashioning strategies for maintaining effective working relationships with non-Board State Bar sub-entities, such as the Committee on Alternative Dispute Resolution – carrying out this planning responsibility within the State Bar planning process and in coordination with the Planning, Program Development, and Budget Committee.
- Perform such other functions relevant to the committee's subject area as the Board of Governors may from time to time assign.

(Source: Board of Governors Resolution approving Volunteer Involvement Committee Charter, May 2002, September 2005.)