May # 5

On-Line Publication of Notices of Disciplinary Charges

Formal disciplinary proceedings against an attorney become public upon the filing of the notice of disciplinary charges (NDCs). However, under current practice, the fact that an NDC has been filed and that a formal disciplinary proceeding in the State Bar Court is pending against a member is only disclosed if a member of the public telephones the State Bar Court or the Office of the Chief Trial Counsel. This proposal, if adopted, would place on the attorney's State Bar profile both a notification of the fact that an formal disciplinary proceeding is pending against the member and would provide a link that would permit the public to access and download a copy of the NDC.

Responsible Staff: Scott Drexel

Recommendation: RAD - May/July

BOG - July
