Re: Agreement Between the State Bar of California and Wada Williams Law Group,
LLP for Government Affairs Representation

Dear Mr. Williams:

As you know, the Wada Williams Law Group was selected to provide to the State Bar of California government affairs representation following a Request for Proposals (RFP) competitive bidding process in 2008. Wada Williams was selected as the "highest scoring proposer" as a result of that process. The RFP and the contract that followed the process contemplated a three year service term renewable at one year intervals for 2008, 2009, and 2010.

We are currently nearing the end of the second of the three year contract intervals and are contemplating the renewal of the contract for 2010.

As you know, the State Bar is currently faced with a veto of its funding authority for 2010. As a result, all expenditures including contracts are undergoing close scrutiny by management and the Board of Governors. Under normal circumstances, a renewal of your contract would be nearly routine. However, under current circumstances, such expenditures are receiving heightened scrutiny.

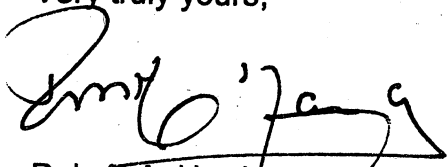

As a result, we propose renewing the Wada Williams contract pursuant to contract Article II [Term] on the following terms. By this letter agreement, the contract will be renewed for an abbreviated period ending February 28, 2010. The contract will expire as of that date, unless renewed through December 31 or some other date in 2010.

It is anticipated that this two month renewal will allow the State Bar to present this issue to its Board of Governors at the Board's January, 2010 meeting to obtain the appropriate review and authority to extend the contract through the end of the year or take other appropriate action. As the contract, by its own terms, exhausts the three year period at the end of December, 2010, a new RFP process will need to be undertaken in 2010 for government affairs representation in 2011 and thereafter.

By signing this letter below, the State Bar proposes a renewal of the existing contract without modification except for the extension of the contract term through February 28, 2010. By signing this letter in the place below, you agree to this interim extension with the possibility of the contract being renewed for the remainder of 2010 following the appropriate Board review and/or action.

If this meets with your approval, please sign in the place below and return this to my attention.

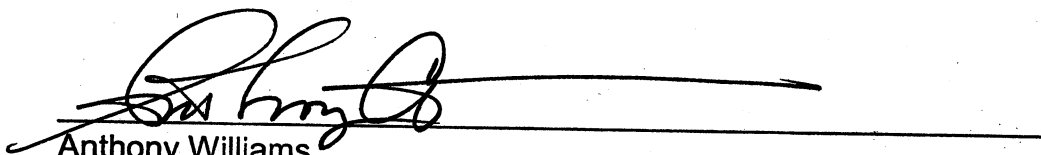

Very truly yours,

Robert A. Hawley
Deputy Executive Director

This indemnity provision will survive the termination or expiration of the Agreement.

In the event both State Bar and contractor are named as defendants in the same civil action, and the State Bar determines that a conflict of interest exists between the parties, Contractor agrees to provide, at its own cost, independent counsel for the State Bar. The State Bar may, at its option, designate its Office of General Counsel as equal participating counsel in any litigation wherein the Contractor defends the State Bar.
