

CHARTER FOR VOLUNTEER INVOLVEMENT COMMITTEE

The Volunteer Involvement Committee is responsible for the maintenance of a positive, productive working relationship between the State Bar and its attorney members, and between the State Bar and the Council of State Bar Sections, in this capacity:

- Fashioning detailed strategies for building and maintaining a positive, productive relationship between the State Bar and its members, including maintaining effective two-way communication - carrying out this planning responsibility within the State Bar planning process and in coordination with the Planning, Program Development, and Budget Committee. Assessing the health of the State Bar relationship with its member attorneys, including conducting member focus groups and administering member opinion surveys, and revising strategies as appropriate.
- Recommending nondisciplinary appointments to the State Bar's standing committees, section executive committees, special committees, boards and commissions, and external entities (formerly the responsibility of the Appointments Committee of the Board of Governors).
- Ensuring - through detailed strategy formulation and careful monitoring - that the State Bar's working relationship with the Council of State Bar Sections is positive and productive.
- Fashioning strategies for maintaining effective working relationships with non-Board State Bar committees such as the Committee on Alternative Dispute Resolution - carrying out this planning responsibility within the State Bar planning process and in coordination with the Planning, Program Development, and Budget Committee.
- Perform such other functions relevant to the committee's subject area as the Board of Governors may from time to time assign.
