INDEPENDENT AUDITOR’S REPORT

We have audited the accompanying Statement of Expenditures of Mandatory Membership Fees (Statement) of the State Bar of California (State Bar) for the year ended December 31, 2010. The Statement is the responsibility of the State Bar’s management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Statement is free of material misstatement. An audit includes consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the State Bar’s internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the Statement, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the Statement. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

The accompanying Statement was prepared for the purpose of showing the allocation of certain expenses into chargeable and nonchargeable categories pursuant to a ruling by the California Supreme Court referred to as the Keller standard as described in Note 2 to the Statement and is not intended to be a complete presentation of the State Bar’s revenues and expenses in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

In our opinion, the Statement presents fairly, in all material respects, the chargeable and nonchargeable expenses of the State Bar for the year ended December 31, 2010, on the basis of presentation described in Note 2 of the Statement.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Board of Governors, management of the State Bar, and members of the State Bar as defined in Note 1 to the Statement, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.

1. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Description of Entity – The State Bar of California (“State Bar”) was first formed as a public corporation by the California State Legislature’s passage of the State Bar Act on July 29, 1927. On November 8, 1960, voters amended the California Constitution to add the State Bar as a constitutional agency in the judicial branch of government. Membership in the State Bar and payment of an annual membership fee are required as a condition of the practice of law in the State of California.

Basis of Accounting – To ensure observance of limitations and restrictions placed on the use of resources available to the State Bar, the accounts of the State Bar are maintained in accordance with the principles of fund accounting. This is the procedure by which resources for various purposes are classified for accounting and reporting purposes into funds established according to their nature and purpose.

Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America are applied by the State Bar in conformance with pronouncements of the Governmental Accounting Standards Board (“GASB”). Amounts in the Statement of Expenditures of Mandatory Membership Fees (“Statement”) were derived from the State Bar’s audited 2010 financial statements.

Use of Estimates – The preparation of the Statement requires management to make estimates and assumptions. Actual results could differ from those estimates. These estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of chargeable and nonchargeable expenses during the reporting period.

2. BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The accompanying Statement was prepared for the purpose of showing the allocation of certain expenses into chargeable and nonchargeable categories. Although derived from the State Bar’s audited 2010 financial statements, the Statement is not a substitute for the financial statements, nor is it intended to be a complete presentation of the State Bar’s revenues and expenses in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Amounts reported in the Statement can be reconciled with amounts reported in the financial statements.

The State Bar Act sets the annual membership fee for members of the State Bar. The amount of the annual membership fee, however, is subject to certain adjustments. The United States Supreme Court in Keller v. State Bar of California, 496 U.S. 1 (1990) (“Keller”) held that the State Bar could not require California lawyers to pay, as part of the mandatory membership fees, the expense of the State Bar’s political or ideological activity that was not necessarily or reasonably related to the State Bar’s purpose of regulating the legal profession or improving the quality of legal services. The Statement provides a basis of determination for the mandatory membership fees that each bar member must pay under state law in order to practice law in California. It describes and separates programs and activities that are “chargeable” and “nonchargeable” to members under the Keller standard. In calculating the chargeable and nonchargeable expenses, absolute precision is not expected nor required pursuant to Keller, at 16, citing to procedural requirements outlined in Chicago Teachers v. Hudson, 475 U.S. 292, 310 (1986). Expenses included in the Statement are derived from expenses included in the general fund (except program costs funded by filing or other fees), the building fund, client security fund, the lawyers assistance program fund, and the support and administration fund of the State Bar. Program revenue included in the Statement represents convention income, continuing legal education fees, CalBar Journal revenues, and other program revenues that are used to fund the related program expenses.

2. BASIS OF PRESENTATION (Continued)

Since January 1, 2000, amendments to the State Bar Act have provided each member with the option of deducting $5 from the annual membership fee for lobbying and related activities outside of the parameters established in Keller (Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code §6140.05). The amendments also prohibited the State Bar from funding the activities of its former Conference of Delegates and Bar sections with mandatory membership fees (Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code §6031.5). In October 2002, the activities of the Conference of Delegates were assumed by an independently incorporated successor entity, now known as the Conference of California Bar Associations (“CCBA”). An amendment to Cal. Bus & Prof. Code §6031.5 allowed the collection of voluntary fees or donations to the CCBA. In addition to these changes, in 2001, the Board of Governors provided members the option of an additional $5 deduction from membership fees for certain other programs. Although reasonable persons may disagree whether some of these programs and activities may be chargeable under the criteria in Keller, the Board of Governors has elected to make them optional in their entirety.

Since January 1, 2000, the amount of expenses that the State Bar may incur for legislative activity outside of the parameters of Keller was restricted by statute to the total revenue collected from those members electing to pay the $5 and not take the deduction from the annual membership fee under Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code §6140.05. Instead of categorizing its programs as within or outside of Keller, the State Bar has elected to restrict the expenses of all of its legislative activity to voluntary funds. Similarly, the State Bar has a $5 deduction for activities under the State Bar’s Bar Relations and Elimination of Bias program and limited its funding to voluntary fees paid by members not taking this deduction. Members who do not wish to support either the State Bar’s legislative activities or its Bar Relations and Elimination of Bias program could deduct the amounts from their annual membership fees. As a result, no part of the mandatory membership fees that a lawyer must pay as a condition of practicing law are used to fund nonchargeable expenses. Therefore, for purposes of the Statement, there are no nonchargeable expenses for mandatory membership fees for the year ended December 31, 2010.

The following is a listing of the major expenses that the State Bar has categorized as chargeable, including a description of the programs or activities performed by category. The classification of a program expense as chargeable was based on the standards in Keller that have been applied to determine whether an expense was necessarily or reasonably incurred for the purpose of regulating the legal profession or improving the quality of legal services available to the people of the State of California. Nonchargeable expenses, as stated above, were funded by voluntary fees paid at the option of members. Determining which State Bar programs and activities are chargeable and nonchargeable requires that judgments be made by the State Bar.

The deduction is allocated to the following activities:

b. Other Optional Programs

Members may deduct the remaining $5 from the annual membership fee which would otherwise fund the elimination of bias and bar relations programs to eliminate bias in the judicial system and legal profession and to increase participation of attorneys who have been underrepresented in the administration and government of the State Bar's programs and activities, such as women, ethnic minority, gay, lesbian, and disabled attorneys, and will not fund the cost of communicating and maintaining relations with local bars and other voluntary associations.
