

LEGAL SPECIALIZATION POST-EXAMINATION
APPLICATION FOR INITIAL CERTIFICATION

When is my application due?

Applicants who have successfully passed the Legal Specialist Examination must submit this application by April 24 in the year after their results were released (i.e. if passing the 2019 exam, results were released in 2020, so the application will be due April 24, 2021), or submit a request for an extension to legalspec@calbar.ca.gov by the due date.

The most common reason for an extension is to gain the five required years of practice in the specialty. Extensions cannot be granted beyond January 31 in the third year after receiving results (i.e. if passing the 2019 exam, results were released in 2020, so the maximum extension date is January 31, 2023).

Have I included the correct fee?

A $300* processing fee, payable either via check or credit card to the State Bar of California, is due with the application.

What happens if I don't fill out my application correctly?

If your application is incomplete or if any information provided is insufficient, you will receive notice to correct the deficiency. If you fail to correct the deficiency within 60 days from the date of the notice, the application shall be deemed withdrawn without a refund of the fee. We may request additional or supplemental nonconfidential information in order to show compliance with recertification requirements.

TRIAL ADVOCACY WORKSHOP GUIDELINES

GUIDELINES FOR TRIAL ADVOCACY PROGRAMS THAT MAY SATISFY ONE OR TWO CONTESTED HEARINGS OF THREE HOURS OR MORE IN LENGTH

Standards for Certification and Recertification in Family Law
(adopted 12/95)

Under section 2.2.2 of the Standards for certifying and recertifying family law specialists, applicants may use alternative tasks and experience in partial satisfaction of the requirement to serve “principal counsel in five(5) hearings or trials.” One of those alternatives (section 2.2.2.3) is “successful completion of a recognized trial advocacy program.”

A qualifying course may be substituted for two trials if it contains not only instruction, but also practice and critique for the participants in accordance with the guidelines below. A qualifying course may be substituted for one trial if the course contains only instruction, as outlined in the guidelines below. You may request credit for one of these two options (one-credit or two-credit), but not both.

The applicant/attorney must officially register and satisfactorily complete the class. Either program must be conducted by an individual or group qualified by practical or academic experience. No credit will be given for the portions of a general civil litigation trial advocacy course devoted to jury selection or voir dire.

Applicants should demonstrate in their application how the course selected meets these guidelines when requesting trial credits.

Specific guidelines follow on the next page.

I. Guidelines for trial advocacy classes that may be substituted for two trials:

- A. A skills workshop (e.g., students prepare and present portions of a mock trial and are critiqued) that has the following will qualify as a substitute for two trials under b. in the application for certification as a family law specialist:
1. At 15 hours of instruction time, which shall include demonstrations with a critique following, plus at least an additional six (6) hours of actual role-playing participation by the student serving as principal counsel for a party in a mock trial;
 2. At least one faculty member/teacher of the program for every four students in the participatory portion of the program;
 3. A live presentation with no more than 25% of taped instruction; and
 4. Inclusion of the program must cover the following topics:
 - a. Trial preparation and use of trial notebooks, whether paper or electronic;
 - b. Use and content of a trial brief;
 - c. Motions in limine;
 - d. Use of opening statements;
 - e. Examination and cross-examination of witnesses, including experts;
 - f. Marking exhibits and introducing documentary evidence;
 - g. Foundational requirements for admissibility of evidence;
 - h. Evidence Rules and objections;
 - i. Closing argument; and
 - j. Anticipating appeal.

II. Guidelines for trial advocacy classes that may be substituted for one trial:

- A. A non-participatory skills workshop (e.g., students attend a series of lectures and demonstrations that are critiqued) may be substituted for one of the trials required in b. on the application for certification as a family law specialist if the course includes:
1. At least 15 hours of instruction time, which shall include demonstrations by the instructor(s) with a critique following;
 2. A live presentation which has no more than 25% of taped instruction; and
 3. Coverage of the topics referred to in section A.4 above.

In order to satisfy the education requirement for initial certification, you must have completed at least 45 hours of education in the substantive area as described below within the three years immediately preceding submission of this application. One-half, or 22.5 hours, may be satisfied with alternative educational activities, sometimes also called non-participatory activities, in which your participation is not verified by an independent party such as the educational provider.

ON ATTACHMENT B-3, list any alternative educational activities that you have completed to satisfy the education requirement. Keep in mind that, with the exception of approved tapes, hours claimed for alternative educational activities are subject to approval and/or adjustment by the CBLS.

REMEMBER: Courses taken to fulfill the MCLE special topic requirements (legal ethics, substance abuse/competency, elimination of bias) CANNOT be used to satisfy the education requirement for certification unless they specifically discuss the substantive law of the specialty area.

Summarize your hours in the grid provided below.

SUMMARY OF EDUCATION ACTIVITIES (INCLUDING ALTERNATIVES)

Applicant Name: _____ Bar Number: _____

On this attachment, list the educational activities you have attended or taught that were specifically pre-approved for legal specialist credit. COPY THIS ATTACHMENT OR PROVIDE A SIMILAR TABLE IF ADDITIONAL LINES ARE NEEDED BELOW.

DOCUMENTATION REQUIRED FOR EACH ACTIVITY: Certificate of attendance. The provider is required to give you a certificate of attendance. If you did not receive a certificate, contact the provider directly.

Note that webinars and tapes can sometimes be participatory activities that should be reported on B-1 or B-2 if they involve some sort of independent verification of attendance, such as a test during or after the class; in this case, the provider will provide a certificate of attendance.

If you are submitting activities that require CBLS approval, please provide sufficient information to allow evaluation of the self-study. Reading of treatises on your own is generally not approved.

The CBLS may require additional information regarding alternative education activities.
